

Top Companies Show Support for NPW

National Payroll Week 2010 saw some of the country's biggest companies roll out the red carpet for their payroll professionals. Through the National Payroll Week Supporter program, these outstanding companies agreed to not only celebrate their payroll professionals but spread the important messages of NPW at their companies. This year, 88 companies showed their support by becoming NPW Supporters.

NATIONAL PAYROLL WEEK 2010

GOLD SPONSORS

Robert Half International, parent company of Accountemps and Robert Half Finance & Accounting, is a proud Gold Sponsor of National Payroll Week. We value our long-standing relationship with the American Payroll Association and its members. We are particularly pleased to honor payroll professionals everywhere for the critical role they play in business today. Thank you for your hard work and integrity.

Robert Half has been helping payroll professionals meet their career objectives for more than 60 years, and we remain committed to your ongoing development. Among other resources, we provide our registered candidates complimentary access to training on the latest accounting software and continuing professional education to help them maintain their credentials, including the Certified Payroll Professional and Fundamental Payroll Certification designations. Because the best payroll professionals choose to work with Robert Half, we are able to provide businesses with the most skilled payroll employees available.
